RE: National "DO NOT CALL " Registry

I am very much in favor of the FTC proposal of a National "Do Not Call" Registry to protect consumers from telemarketers.

Please do all you can to see that it is adopted.

Sincerely,

Carolyn D. Commons

THANK GOD !! You are finally going to make it possible for long-suffering ordinary Americans to free themselves from the tyranny of telemarketers! No one in the country is more hated than these parasites.

Do not give in to the pressure of industry lobbyists on this issue, for you are in the right. & ——— ~~we~~ want to be left alone!
We have precious little free time with our families
as is.

Suggestion: How about eliminating unwanted advertising e-mail next? (SPAM)

Please vote for a national do-not-call list.

These calls are intrusive and not ever welcome. During a recent illness, they were a real "health hazard." In order to communicate with Drs. it was necessary to answer all incoming calls. Many were telemarketers. Even after refusing offers and asking not to be called again ever, in a few days, the same Co. would call again. Some were argumentative, and insulting. A fixed, modest retirement income makes caller I. D. another expense we cannot indulge in.

I hope and pray the passage of this rule will put an end to unwanted calls.

Dear Sir,

Please do something about the harassment from telemarketers.

(1) Time and Time again I have been expecting an important telephone call, when the telephone rings and upon rushing to answer it, find there is no one there. It is a telemarketer call because I know they automatically dial three numbers and the first one answering gets their pitch.

(2) "The telephone rings and no one is there" is now happening two or three times a day.

(3) My health is poor and I must rest so it is very irritating to be constantly disturbed by offers of services or products which I do not want or can afford.

(4) I cannot understand why, after paying the Telephone Company, State and Federal Taxes for the use of a telephone line, I have to have these Telephone calls. Some are so persistent they call constantly.

(5) When I need something I know how to obtain and do not need Telephone-To-Telephone salespeople.

(6) I just mailed $10.00 To The Division of Consumer Services, who claim to be able to put a stop to this invasion of my privacy. But why do I or should I have to pay more money to get this stopped. This is $10.00 out of my food and medicine budget.

(7) If you add up the "no-one" and the "some-one" is there telephone calls, it really is an alarming situation.

(8) Is there anyone else I can make these pleas to? I would appreciate anything you can do.

God Bless

Yours truly,
Gloria Granda

TELEMARKETERS

The FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION has a proposal to create a national registry for people who do not want to be called by telemarketers. You can send a letter to:

Office of the Secretary
Room 159
Federal Trade Commission
600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW
Washington, DC 20580

The FTC Web site (www.ftc.gov) has more details.

Comments are due to the commission by March 29, 2002.

PLEASE PLACE OUR NAME AND PHONE NUMBER ON THIS LIST -

Dear Secretary:

I wish to support the nation of a telemarketing "no call" registry and amend the Telemarketing Sales Rule.

I recently had a telemarketing telephone call at 9:50 P.M. last night and ~~two~~ on a Saturday at 8 A.M. I have not been pleased. The time of day on these occasions have actually created more resistance on my part—less incentive to buy.

Sincerely,

Wesley Greenwood

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN;

AMERICANS ENJOY THE FREEDOM OF SPEECH. THIS IS WHY INDIVIDUAL BUSINESSES HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO APPROACH ADVERTISING IN WAYS THAT MAY BE PROFITABLE AND YET SAVE IN EXPENSES FOR THEIR COMPANIES. TELEMARKETING MAKES A MORE PERSONAL MEANS OF COMMUNICATING WITH THE CONSUMER. SPEAKING WITH THE CONSUMER IN PERSON OVER THE PHONE GIVES THAT PERSON THE OPPORTUNITY TO ADDRESS ANY QUESTIONS THAT HE OR SHE MAY HAVE CONCERNS WITH.

WE ALL KNOW IN THE PAST THERE HAVE BEEN TELEMARKETERS AND COMPANIES THAT HAVE TAKEN THE CONSUMER, WHICH HAS GIVEN THE REST OF US A BAD REPUTATION. I READ THE NEWSPAPER AND LISTEN TO DAILY NEWS AND FEEL THE MEDIA DOES NOT BRING A POSITIVE ATTITUDE. WE IN THE FUTURE NEED TO CORRECT THIS AND TRAIN OUR TELEMAKETERS IN A MORE PROFESSIONAL, MANNER. OUR COMPANIES NEED TO START A REGISTRY, AS THE BETTER BUSINESS BUREAU, TO RECORD THAT WE HAVE TELEMARKETERS WORKING IN OUR BEHALF. THIS WAY INDIVIDUAL COMPANIES AND ORGANIZATIONS COULD BE CHECKED BY THE GOVERNMENT OR CONSUMERS.

I HAVE WORKED CUSTOMER SERVICE FOR SOME 20 YEARS, LETS EDUCATE THE PUBLIC AND TELEMARKETERS. THERE ARE ALTERNATIVES IF THE CONSUMER WISHES NOT TO RECEIVE UNWANTED TELEPHONE CALLS. AS A MARKETING MANAGER AND IN BEHALF OF MY TELEMARKETERS, WE TOO WANT TO MAKE A LIVING TO SUPPORT OUR FAMILIES.

I am writing about The Centralized, national "Do not Call"
Registry.

I am very much in favor of This. It should have been done years ago.

Also on the list should be Paid Solicitors for Charities, and fund raisers such as Police and fire fighters, as a large percent of money raised goes to the fund raisers

I have no problem with fund raising for organizations if They don't use paid fund raisers

Dear People at FTC,

- ① In regard to telemarketers:
- ② It is quite annoying to answer the phone only to hear a spiel about something you are not interested in.
- ③ Every day I can expect one or two of these calls. One day there were 4.
- ④ After I say hello there is silence for a second or two, I hang up. But, I had to answer it!
- ⑤ Yes, I have an answering machine. One day I had 4 calls on it, 3 were telemarketers.
- ⑥ Enough!

RE: TELEMARKETING RULE-MAKING - COMMENT/ FTC FILE NO. R411001

I WOULD LIKE TO BACK THE FTC PROPOSAL THAT WOULD PUT AN END TO ALL TELEMARKETING PHONE CALLS WITH ONE PHONE CALL.

I AM ELDERLY AND NOT IN THE BEST HEALTH AND THESE CALL ARE VERY DISRUPTIVE TO ME. THEY EITHER CALL WHEN I AM EATING OR TRYING TO GET SOME REST. TELLING THEM NOT TO CALL ME AGAIN DOES NOT WORK EITHER.

PLEASE PASS THIS LONG OVER-DUE LAW.

SINCERELY,

RE: Telemarketing

Gentlemen:

A recent article in "The Motley Fool's" column set out some of your proposals to modify the telemarketing sales rule.

① I am avidly in favor of establishing a toll free # for consumers to call and be put on a "DO NOT CALL" list. My dinner hour & later in the evening have been interrupted too many times & I'm fed up!

② Prohibiting a telemarketer from getting a consumers credit card # or other account numbers from anyone BUT the consumer, or from improperly sharing the info. with anyone else is a MUST.

③ Businesses claiming their right to free speech would be denied is a joke. I think my right to privacy is being violated and adds to the problem of identity theft as well.

④ I'm incensed over the entire issue when I think about the broad implications of the loose boundaries and rules that apply to telemarketers. We're being taken advantage of!
Please correct all the inequities.

Thank you your attention.

Sincerely,
Frances Young
